Movin' Day!

Choraegus ShareMusic Rehearsal Notes

General

Jazz... swing... a cappella... eight parts... enjoy!

Choir

On the verses (m. 25-33, 34-42), the "Bump"'s should be sung "Bummm-P" (i.e. with a sustained "M" sound and an audible "P". This provides the percussion background to the melody. In case you're wondering, the "M"'s are the kick bass and open hi hat on 1 and 3 and the "P"'s are the snare drum on 2 and 4.

Work on the transition in measures 50-57 very carefully. The multiple entries form a dominant thirteenth chord which will really scream if you peg it. The slide on "z-z-z-z-z-zoom" is a bit tough because it goes from a perfect unison in the original key to a full chord in the new key - and each part slides through a different interval (well, except the second altos and first tenors, but they're heading in opposite directions...). Believe me, this will be particularly rewarding when you master it!

If you have the bass which can add a low A-flat at the end...

Accompanist

Yes, I suppose you could interpret "a cappella" as being equivalent to "improvise" or "jam session"...
